

A detailed historical illustration of a river scene, likely the River Thames. A large stone bridge with multiple arches spans the river. Several boats are visible, including a large boat with a red canopy and many rowers in the foreground, and smaller boats with various flags. The background shows a city with numerous buildings and a church with a tall spire. The sky is filled with large, white clouds.

UNTO THE TIDEWAY BORN

500 years of Thames Watermen and Lightermen

This important book is to be published in July 2015 and is a fascinating historical account of the role of Watermen and Lightermen on the Thames over the last 500 years.

UNTO THE TIDEWAY BORN

Anyone with a serious interest in the growth of London into the greatest capital city in the world must surely read this book. – Jeremy Randall, Master 2014–2015 and President of Leander Club.

I would like to subscribe to the book “Unto the Tideway Born” and have my name listed as a subscriber. This offer closes on May 25th 2015. I would like my name to appear as

I would like to order copies of the book “Unto the Tideway Born” which will be published in July 2015. [Copies will be despatched in early July 2015]

Payment can be made by cheque or by debit or credit card [see below]

If sending a cheque please make this out to “The Company of Watermen & Lightermen” for £40 [book price £35 plus P & P £5] and post this form together with your cheque to The Company. Postage and package costs relate to the UK Mainland only. Please note the price for posting multiple books is available on request.

Or I authorise you to debit my credit/debit card with the amount of £40

Card types accepted

Card details:

Long card number

Name on the card

Expiry Date

3 digit number on reverse of card

Signature

Delivery address:

Postcode